Last Shabbat I went to temple and saw the rabbi and cantor standing on the _____. The cantor was standing at the _____ leading the service. I was so excited when they invited me up to open the _____. That meant it was time to take the Torah out.

I quickly walked up onto the _____ and opened the doors of the _____. There were so many Torah scrolls inside. The rabbi took one out and after we marched around he placed it on the _____. I closed the doors to the _____ and stepped off the _____ to go back to my seat.

It was so cool being able to participate with the rabbi and cantor!
